

a Traveling Dog

True or False Cards

Copy the pages and laminate them for durability, if you wish. Cut out the Sentence Cards. Students place all the Sentence Cards face up. Next, students take turns selecting a card, reading it aloud, and answering whether it is a True or False statement. Correct answers receive one point. Cards are self-correcting. The player with the most points wins.

Boomer Jack was a black dog with floppy ears.

Boomer Jack had a Southwestern Pacific tag on his collar.

Boomer Jack had a bobbed tail.

Boomer Jack broke his leg after being hit by a train.

Boomer Jack liked to clamber aboard a wagon, or train and visit new towns.

Boomer Jack died on a bus station platform.

Boomer Jack didn't have one particular place he called home.

Boomer Jack was cremated and his ashes were spread all over the U.S.

False

True

False

True

False

True

True

Boomer Jack, True Tale of a Traveling Dog

True or False Cards

The railroad men reserved him the fireman's seat on the train.

The firemen reserved him the railroad man's seat on the fire truck.

He liked to stick his head out the window with his tongue and ears flapping

He didn't like the wind hitting him in the face

Boomer Jack was acquainted with all the restaurants.

Boomer Jack was acquainted with all the finer stores in town.

Friendly cooks would give Boomer Jack leftovers.

Friendly cooks would prepare elaborate meals for Boomer Jack.

False

True

False

True

False

True

False

True

Boomer Jack, True Tale of a Traveling Dog True or False Cards

People were honored to have Boomer Jack stay at their house.

People were honest and didn't want Boomer Jack in their houses.

Boomer Jack probably had many girlfriends throughout the country.

Boomer Jack's heart belonged to Tiffany a French Poodle.

Boomer Jack was scarred when he was doused with boiling water.

Boomer Jack was scarred when he rescued a child from a house fire.

Boomer Jack ruined expensive hotel furniture.

Boomer Jack was always the well mannered guest at hotels.

False

True

False

True

False

True

False

True