

Dr. Little 2

Flip Chute Cards

In this story, Peppy is in love with

"They just thought he was tuned into them somehow. The phrase tuned into means

True or False: Kenny became a local celebrity.

Why did strangers bring their pets to Kenny?

Where did Peppy run in the beginning of this story?

True or False: Peppy always obeyed Kenny's commands.

Peppy's love goddess was named

What type of dog was Cleopatra?

How was Cleopatra described in this story?

Kenny compared Cleopatra to a dinosaur because of her

What happened to Julie when Cleopatra ran to Peppy?

What was dangling from Cleopatra's collar?

a giant, shaggy animal

gigantic size

She lost her grip and fell
on her face in the grass.

a key

toward the park

False

Cleopatra

an Irish wolfhound

a dog

able to comprehend
or interpret

True

to see if he could figure
out their problems

Dr. Little 2

Flip Chute Cards

What type of animal did Kenny compare Cleopatra to?

Julie was left home alone
because her parents

True or False:
Julie and Kenny were somehow related.

The word dignified in this story means

Who answered Kenny when he was thinking about the key around Cleopatra's neck?

True or False:
Julie's parents must have felt Julie was safe alone because Cleopatra was with her.

Both Kenny and Julie had been feeling like _____.

What happened to Mrs.
Herold in this story?

What did Kenny realize that made his mouth drop open?

In what way was Julie similar to Kenny?

What was Cleopatra's
nickname for Peppy?

The word sympathetically in this story means

that Julie could communicate with animals
just like he could

She and Kenny both
had dogs as pets, and they
both could communicate with animals.

Peppums

understandingly

Julie

True

freaks

She was robbed.

a dinosaur

felt she was safe as long as Cleopatra was with her

False

poised

How was Mrs. Herold described in this story?

What was Mrs. Herold told happened to the usual cleaning man?

True or False:
The man who cleaned Mrs. Herold's house was really the robber.

The word phony in this story means

What jewelry was stolen from Mrs. Herold?

True or False:
Mrs. Herold used a cleaning service once a month to clean her house.

Who witnessed the robbery?

The phony cleaning man was wearing a fake _____.

Who was the nice gentleman that Mrs. Herold allowed in her house?

How did Mrs. Herold describe the man who cleaned her house?

What was the name of Mrs. Herold's parrot?

What was the name of the police dog?

a man who claimed to be the replacement cleaning man	she said that he had a bushy mustache.	Penelope	Bruno diamond rings and necklaces that belonged to her dear mother	False	Penelope, Mrs. Herold's parrot	mustache
a frail silver-haired woman	She was told that the usual cleaning man was sick.	True	fake or imposter

What clue helped to identify the robber?

The word interrupted in this story means

The word smugly in this story means

Where was the real cleaner during the robberies?

Why do you think the robber swung at Penelope?

True or False:
There were two police officers at the scene, a male and female.

How many other houses were robbed?

Why was Bruno so unhappy?

What did Penelope want as a reward for helping to find the robber?

How did the German Shepherd refer to his human police partners?

Where did the robber stash all the stuff he stole?

What did Peppy tell Kenny and Kenny were going to be in the near future?

better food, fruit and snails

as donut-eaters

in the back of the cleaning van

a father and
an uncle

Penelope was probably making a lot of noise to attract attention to the fact that the cleaning man was really a robber.

True

ten

He wanted to be treated more like a partner. He wanted some donuts and
extra time to take breaks.

The robber tore a piece
of his shirt on the birdcage
in the bedroom.

a break in continuity

self-righteously

He was tied up in the back of the van.