

In this story, Peppy was in _____ with another dog.

According to this story, dogs have _____ just like humans.

Second-class citizen in this story means

The word celebrity in this story means

The word impatiently in this story means

Cleopatra is Peppy's

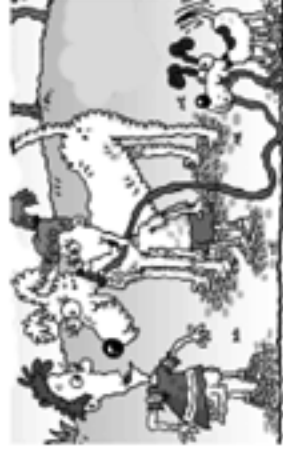

Why does Peppy love Cleo?

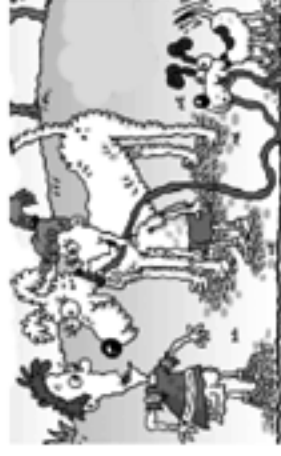

How did Kenny feel about Cleo's tongue?

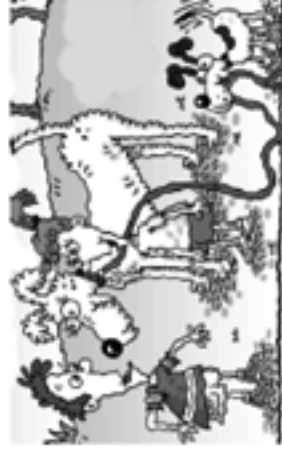

Why was there a key on Cleo's collar?

Kenny woke one morning to find that he could

How is Cleopatra described in this story?

Cleo's owner is

He thinks she's a goddess.

a famous person

love

He thought it was as big as a dish towel.

eagerly

feelings

The key on Cleo's collar was the house key so that Julie could get in the house while her parents were away.

love interest,
or girlfriend

inferior or low quality

Julie

a gigantic or mountainous dog

talk to and understand animals

The word braced in this story means

What did Kenny and Julie have in common?

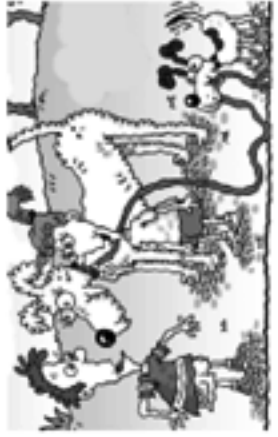

Because they are able to understand animals, both Kenny and Julie sometimes feel like

The word shrill in this story means

Who lived next door to Julie and Cleo?

What happened to Mrs. Herold?

True or False:
The substitute cleaning man was a thief.

The word relieved in this story means

Where did Kenny and Julie first meet?

The fake cleaning man had a mustache described as

Who was Penelope in this story?

Who saw the crime take place?

at the park

bushy

Mrs. Herold's parrot

Penelope

Mrs. Herold

She was robbed.

True

reassured or calmed

supported

Kenny and Julie both understand animals and can talk to them.

freaks

piercing or high-pitched

The word exchanged in this story means

True or False: Julie and Kenny already had the case solved before the police arrived.

When did Peppy meet Cleopatra at the park?

Another word for burglary is

To celebrate, Mrs. Herold decided she would bake her special

At the end of this story Kenny finds out that Peppy is going to be a

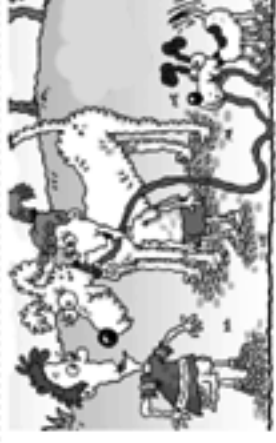

What type of animal was with the two police officers?

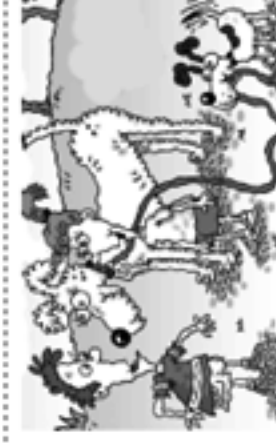

True or False: Penelope loved to eat snails and fruit.

At the end of this story we find out that Kenny is going to be an

The word suspiciously in this story means

The word appreciate in this story means

The main character in this story is

They met at the park
when Kenny was in school.

father

uncle

Kenny
(Dr. Little)

True

fudge cake

True

be grateful for

traded or swapped

theft

a German Shepherd

skeptical or distrustful